President's Message

Kevin Robson – 2024 President, Ilderton Agricultural Society

First, can I say a big thank you to all those involved with the 2023 Ilderton Agricultural Society Fair! We had record breaking crowds, beautiful weather and lots of items entered in our competitions. The volunteers that made it all happen did an amazing job once again! And we cannot wait for September to do it all over again!

This September brings another great opportunity to connect with the greater Ilderton community. The fair has always been the fall community highlight with everything from cotton candy to cattle shows. These two things normally aren't something that you would think of together, but at the Ilderton Fair they get along just fine, just don't feed it to the animals. For over a century the Ilderton fair has been connecting our community over a weekend of family fun. We are proud of our agriculture roots in Ilderton and want to show them off and have some fun doing it too!

Thanks to all the volunteers, exhibitors, fair goers and community partners. We look forward to another year and as always, we will See You At The Fair!

2023 Ilderton Fair Ambassador

Ashley Stanton

This year has been a wonderful journey as I've had the incredible honor of serving as the Ilderton Fair Ambassador. It's an experience I will forever cherish, one that has profoundly impacted me and reinforced my deep-rooted pride in calling Ilderton my home.

The fair weekend itself was a whirlwind of joy. We had great weather, delicious food, and the opportunity to participate in fun filled activities throughout the 3 days. A major theme that I took from the weekend was the heart of agriculture embedded into our fair. From attending the agriculture awareness day for the local grade 3 schools, watching and participating in the 4-H shows, the farm barn and the horse shows, there truly was an excellent range of agriculture displayed. This showcase of agriculture events allows for education and awareness and helps foster a deeper connection with the people in our community.

Stepping into this new role as ambassador allowed me to witness firsthand the magic of the fair that I've treasured since childhood. I had the opportunity to see how much work all the wonderful volunteers put into making this weekend so special and the joy it brings to everyone in attendance. It truly was something special.

For those seeking to fully immerse themselves in this remarkable event, I urge you to get involved wherever and whenever possible. Whether through small or significant commitments, there's a place for everyone to volunteer and experience a sense of connection and enjoyment. Reach out to any fair personnel for guidance on how to become part of this multi-generational tradition.

I would like to extend gratitude to everyone that has supported me throughout this journey.

While there are countless individuals to acknowledge, I would like to extend special thanks to Carolyn Wydeven, Joan Edwards, Lisa Phillips, Lona Quenneville, Kevin Robson, Grace Shearer and Taryn Kennedy. I would also like to extend my thanks to the entire ambassador committee for providing me with extra support and encouragement throughout this journey.

Representing the best hometown in the world has been an absolute privilege, and I eagerly anticipate the exciting future of the fair. Thank you for granting me this truly exceptional experience!
