President's Message

Kevin Robson – 2023 President, Ilderton Agricultural Society

Another year has come and with that, another rendition of the Ilderton Fair will be coming this fall. In fact, this will be our 171st year since the formation of the Ilderton Agricultural Society. Many of the Ilderton Fair traditions continue on like livestock and crop competitions, hand work and quilts on display. Along with long standing traditions, the fair has changed and grown since 1852, additions of a Midway, Food Trucks, Tractor Pull, Dog and Pet Shows, Talent shows, Special Attractions and more!

This change is part of our community, as Middlesex and Ilderton grow and change, we help connect a rural and urban community. We have volunteers that have been coming for well over 70 years, and some that may have moved to the community just days before. I have been lucky enough to attend for the last 30ish years and look forward to it each time! The Fair has been a “Homecoming” of sorts for many who have moved away, a chance to visit with new and old friends and maybe make some new ones too.

These new and old connections work to build a community in Ilderton and area, but none of that would be possible without the hundreds of volunteers and thousands of hours year round to make the Society and Fair as great as it is.

Thanks to all the volunteers, exhibitors, fair goers and community partners. I look forward to another year and as always, we will see you at the FAIR!

Thanks, Kevin Robson

2022 Ilderton Fair Ambassador

Taryn Kennedy

This year I have had the absolute privilege of representing my favourite fair through an experience that I am certain I will never forget. My time as the Ilderton Fair Ambassador has taught me so much about myself and has reminded me why I am so proud to call Ilderton home.

The fair weekend itself was a fun-filled, exciting few days with good weather, great food

and even better company. Getting to experience the fair that I have grown up loving and attending invariably in this new role has been both a humbling and eye-opening experience. I have learned so much about the importance of agriculture and am committed to continue advocating for this as I move forward. Beyond supporting local, perhaps the most prominent, reoccurring theme I found throughout this experience was the importance and benefits of participation and involvement. The enduring and contagious love shown by the Ilderton community for this wonderful fall fair was made evident by the record-breaking numbers in attendance that were recorded this year. However, it is the volunteers that allow this fair to exist, and I feel so fortunate to have enhanced my involvement and to have had the chance to work in areas of the fair I hadn't before alongside some wonderful people. That being said, the best and easiest way to gain the full experience of this incredible community event is to get involved in it – wherever and whenever you can. There are numerous different committees ranging from small to large commitment that you can easily become a part of. Any fair personnel in this book can direct you to the proper contact so that you can join this multigenerational, multifaceted tradition of connection, experience, and fun!

I cannot express enough how thankful I am for everyone who supported me along this journey. While there are too many people to name, I would like to offer a few special thank yous to Carolyn Wydeven, Joan Edwards, Lisa Phillips, Lona Quenneville, Danny Jefferies, Karis Rovillos and Hailey Scott. I also want to extend my thanks to the ambassador committee as a whole for all their hard work and support, as well as my sponsor, the Ilderton Lions Club, for their continued support (and the line bypass for a burger on a busy Saturday afternoon).

It has been an absolute honour and privilege to represent the best hometown in the world, and I can't wait to see what the future of this fair holds.

Thank you for a truly exceptional experience!

Taryn Kennedy
